

Messrs. Green & Co. are now endeavoring to get at Nashville. Persons who have the duty of carrying on business and regularly at their residences or places of business by leaving their orders with Green & Co.

We earnestly call the attention of the people throughout the State to the importance of "arming" themselves immediately, and as fully as practicable. The present perfidious Administration seem determined to lay upon the country civil war, with the view of subjugating the South. Kentuckians must be prepared to meet any emergency.

It is hoped the Banks will grant the loan asked for by the Governor, and we believe they will. If they object or hesitate, they will incur the scorn and indignation of the State.

MADAM PARR.—This celebrated cantatrice will make her last appearance before a Louisville audience this evening. At the urgent request of several hundred of our best citizens, she has consented to give one more representation of her unsurpassing powers as a lyric tragedienne. Shall we permit her to leave us with the impression that there but one city in which she survived talents were not appreciated, and that that city was Louisville? The idea of her leaving us without giving us some of her finest songs, while Mr. Mulder, with his orchestral mode of playing the piano, promises to be around and to please his audience. The program is a good one, and last and also, the tickets, this time are to be had for only fifty cents.

The Journal talks about an "armed insurrection." Was an armed insurrection, listened to by a free and fearless people? Is not "armed insurrection," if not a contradiction in terms, an insult to the parties to whom it is offered?

The idea of those who think with the Journal in Kentucky, approaching the South as armed mediators, is just as sensible as Lincoln's commanding the Confederate States to disperse in twenty-four hours.

PARADE OF THE WAR AND KANSAS VOYAGE.—The managers of this exhibition have determined to give a few more entertainments at the Court House. The program, acting modes of Fort Sumter, Monticello, and Pickens, and the vessels all under steam and sail, form a striking feature of great interest. The events that have so rapidly followed each other for the past few days are rendered in miniature by several of our best artists. We have never seen the equal of this exhibition in interest and novelty.

ARRESTED.—Thos. L. Owen, who was indicted in October last, for stealing money from a prostitute in the upper part of the city, and bailed out by a relative, immediately thereafter obtained a watch from a Main street merchant under false pretenses and then disappeared. He was, a day or two since, arrested at Memphis, and Officer R. M. Moore started for that city yesterday to bring him back.

The Southern Shield, at Owensboro, heretofore a strong Union paper, says it is foolish and useless to hold out longer, and declares that the future destiny of civilized Kentucky must be decided with the Southern Confederacy. It adds:

There is not a solitary Union man in Owensboro, that we know of, and a company is now forming for the Southern cause.

LIBERAL PRESENT.—We learned yesterday that Messrs. Hamilton & Bro., merchants of this city, presented the "Mt. Washington Guards," a new company just organized in Bullitt county, for the defense of the Southern Rights, with the handsome sum of Five Hundred Dollars, to aid in their equipment.

The indignation against the Free Negro Military organization in Cincinnati was so great among those who have still some pretensions to decent feelings, that the Mayor was compelled to suppress the enthusiasm of his colored brethren, and put a stop to their proceedings.

The officers of the Enrolled Militia of the Third Battalion district (Fifth and Sixth Wards) are expected to meet Major Wiley Monday evening at the Court House, past seven o'clock, on Fifth street, between Main and Market, Cotton's new building, for the purpose of more fully organizing.

The Home Guard—Another Company. Another company of the Home Guard was organized on Saturday night with the following officers: Captain, R. D. Anderson; First Lieutenant, R. P. Talbot; Second Lieutenant, W. G. H. Smith; Third Lieutenant, R. S. Simms.

The closing sale of Messrs. Warren & Baker's stock of Dry Goods will be this (Monday) morning and afternoon. Our lady readers take this in mind. Great bargains may be expected.

A correspondent writes from Prestonsville, that a farmer of Carroll county, who had been trading in Madison, Indiana, was treated with indignity, because he was a Kentuckian and a Southern Rights man.

A lady lost two ten dollar Kentucky bills, on Third street, between Kendrick's jewelry store and Jefferson street, on Saturday last. The finder will please leave them at this office.

A man by the name of Trimble was arrested on Saturday in Jeffersonville for a felonious outrage upon a child. The mob would have hung him if he had not been placed in the penitentiary for safe keeping.

Five prisoners escaped from the jail in New Albany on Saturday. Three of them were recaptured yesterday near Morristown, Indiana.

There were no arrests yesterday, except for drunkenness. The thieves seem to be so much occupied with the war news, that they won't take time to steal.

Col. A. H. Douglas, of Memphis, is forming an Artillery Company of one hundred and eighty men, to be armed with twelve six gun cannon.

K. G. C.—The Fourth and Fifth Wards Castle meet a tonight at 7 1/2 o'clock, at Crystal Palace. After the Castle is closed, a Second Degree Castle will be opened.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.—At a meeting of the citizens of Cumberland county, held at Nashville, on the 13th inst., strong Southern resolutions were adopted.

Col. Ed. C. Crossland, of Columbus, Ky., has raised an opinion company of volunteers, to be attached to the regiment now forming in this city.

Nat. Gay was fatally stabbed by David Denton in an affray a few days since in Barren county.

The residence of Rev. J. B. South, near Bowling Green, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night week. Loss $3,000.

See H. H. advertisement. Money loaned on diamonds, &c. Office on Market street, between Third and Fourth.

The Southern Shield, which has been heavily supported to John Bell for President, is in favor of Seward.

John De Nottebeck, the Russian Consul at New York, was thrown from his horse on Thursday and killed.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION IN CINCINNATI.

Submissionism Denounced—What the People Think of "Armed Neutrality"—Patriotic Leaders—Louisville—Salute in Honor of the Surrender of Fort Sumter, &c., &c.

CINCINNATI, Ky., April 20, P. M. Editor Louisville Courier:—Hon. JAMES F. ROBINSON made a Submission speech here to-day, in which he declared for "armed neutrality." When he had concluded, an immense crowd filled the Court House, and were addressed by W. W. CLEARY, Esq., Representative in the Legislature, and a resolution was passed by unanimous acclamation:

"Resolved, That Kentucky's sympathies are with the Confederate States of America, and we denounce the doctrine of 'armed neutrality' as base and cowardly, and unworthy of Kentucky and Kentuckians."

A magnificent silk flag of the Confederate States was then brought into the room by a procession of the ladies of Cincinnati, and was received with the wildest enthusiasm. The flag was presented by the ladies to Capt. Drake's company of volunteers, who take their departure for Louisville on Monday to join the regiment preparing to leave for the Confederate States.

A salute of fifteen guns was fired to-day in honor of our City Council, in honor of the surrender of Fort Sumter. There was also a procession of militia in honor of that event.

The Speech of Hon. John C. Breckinridge.

The announcement that Ex-Vice President Breckinridge would speak, drew the greatest crowd to the Court House that ever assembled in this city to hear a political address. Long before the hour arrived the City Hall, which is said to accommodate about three hundred persons, was densely packed, and thousands stood in the standing room. That night heard the gifted Kentuckian, it was determined that he would speak from the steps of the Court House, where, for nearly two hours, he held the vast crowd enthralled by his powerful and eloquent voice.

Mr. Breckinridge discussed the issues now before the country as a patriot and a statesman. He did not seek to inflame the passions of men, but rather to enlighten the judgment, and to show the necessity of following the fortunes of his State, which had so often honored him with the position of Governor, and which he had so often held in the hands of the people.

He showed that if Kentucky remained in the Federal Union, although she might receive a few millions of dollars, she would be forced to furnish millions of dollars per year to aid Lincoln in subjugating the Southern States, and by blood. Certainly Kentucky had done right in refusing to send a soldier in support of a man who had so often been her enemy, and who had so often been her enemy.

He favored among the State in all events. He did not believe that a State of armed neutrality could long exist, and he believed that it was universally applauded by Kentuckians. The idea advanced in the late meeting, that Kentucky should play a many part, was a mere delusion. In his judgment, the only course was to follow the fortunes of the State, and to follow the fortunes of the State.

He believed that all party differences and minor forgotten in the midst of these great issues, and that the only course was to follow the fortunes of the State, and to follow the fortunes of the State.

KENTUCKIANS! YOU MUST NOT FORGET THE FUTURE OF THE UNION.
You are not just a plain citizen. You are a citizen of the future of the Union. You are not just a man of the present. You are a man of the future. You are not just a man of the present. You are a man of the future. You are not just a man of the present. You are a man of the future.

Without that agreement—without that compact—there would have been no Union. Without that compact—there would have been no Union. Without that compact—there would have been no Union. Without that compact—there would have been no Union. Without that compact—there would have been no Union.

The Union, then, no longer exists—there is no Union—because the Constitution upon which the Union was based has been broken. The Union, then, no longer exists—there is no Union—because the Constitution upon which the Union was based has been broken. The Union, then, no longer exists—there is no Union—because the Constitution upon which the Union was based has been broken.

Of the original thirteen States, by which the Constitution was adopted and the Union formed, Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, and virtually North Carolina have resumed the powers delegated by them to the Federal Government in the Constitution, and withdrawn from it.

Is there a Union, then, when the Constitution is destroyed and the Government subverted by a portion of the States of which it was composed?

No State is longer bound by the Federal Constitution or owes obedience to the acts of the Federal Administration.

And yet Kentuckians are told that they constitute the fortiori hope of the Union, and are appealed to rally under the "stars and stripes" and do homage to the "American flag."

If the Union exists, can it be maintained through disobedience to the requirements and mandates of the Federal authorities? If the Union exists, can it be maintained through disobedience to the requirements and mandates of the Federal authorities?

They applaud the Governor, who, in the name of the Commonwealth, dares to respond to the requisition of the Administration for militia to "enforce the law."

No! Kentuckians! you are not the "fortiori hope of the Union!" You are called to position; but the influence of the Journal and of its political associates silenced your voice and paralyzed your arms. They succeeded in preventing you from uttering one word of protest.

The Union, around which clustered the memories of the past, fond recollections, the hopes and the affections of millions, is no more.

It is gone, destroyed by the people and the States of the North; but its fall might possibly have been averted, possibly postponed, but for the refusal of the Border Slave States to take such action as the exigencies of the dreadful crisis required.

It is to be in the "Union" with the North and those who connected the policy adopted and controlled the action taken, by these States, during the last six months, remember, that upon their heads rests a fearful responsibility for the terrible consequences which have so much contributed to bring upon the country.

Is Obedience Due to the Federal Authorities?
The Journal, in commenting upon our notice of H. W. BRECK'S speech at the Court House Tuesday, thinks it was mistaken as to what constitutes revolution. We did not pretend to give a report of Mr. Breck's speech, but merely suggested a single point. Mr. Breck's remarks on the point in question were substantially these:

"The Constitution of the United States empowers Congress to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions."

"Congress, by the act of 1795, provided that the President might, by his proclamation, call forth the militia for such purpose."

The President, under this statute, has issued his proclamation for 75,000 men; and has, through the Secretary of War, made requisition on Kentucky for four regiments, or about 3,000 men. Gov. MAGROCK has gallantly and nobly refused to call out the militia, as demanded by LINCOLN'S proclamation, to subjugate the Southern people. The question now is, whether Kentuckians will sustain their Governor?

You, place Kentucky in an attitude of rebellion. The President might, by his proclamation, call forth the militia for such purpose. and giving them up to your own tuner, complete and permanent cures are constantly being attained at a laboratory.

YOUNG MEN TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. If he devotes much of his time to the treatment of these cases, he will find that which affects the body and mind, uniting the unfortunate individuals for either business or society. The effects of these early habits, or the excess of years are to weaken and debilitate the constitution.

which and exults the natural feeling, and at least the vital energies of man; on the pleasure of life are marred, the object of marriage frustrated, and existence itself rendered a term of uncertainty and agony for such persons, expect these contemplative marriage pills to come to making immediate application, as Dr. H., by new treatment, is enabled to insure a speedy permanent cure.

DR. HALL'S AMERICAN PERIODICAL PILLS. No article of medicine intended for the exclusive use of females has ever yet been introduced has given such universal satisfaction as the American Periodical Pills. They can be relied on

CELEBRATED
REJUVENATING ELIXIR

Prepared on the strictest Pharmaceutical principles by one of the ablest Chemists of the age.

THIS is altogether a new medicine, the result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdom, having an entirely new and an attract method of administration. It is the only medicine published by accomplished quacks to the sufferer, Mr. Wright, well knowing the deception practised upon the unfortunates, felt it his duty at once to expose the feeble and unimpressive character of the advertisement, and to show that the medicine was without even one dissimulative word. He gave their adherence to its perfect and undivided control over the whole physical man when his frame was reduced, and when all other medicines known to the medical profession had failed in vain. It is through years of patient investigation and of desperado determination, have crowned Doctor's efforts, and he now offers the Elixir to feeling humanity as the only thing that can cure the following diseases—namely:

Cancer, Debility,

Mental and Physical Depression,
Imbecility,
Deterioration of Blood to the H
Confused Ideas,
Hysteria,
General Irritability,
Restlessness and Sleeplessness at Night,
Absence of Muscular Efficiency,
Loss of Appetite,
Dyspepsia,
Emaciation,
Low Spirits,
Disorganization of the Organs of Generation

and, in fact, all the concomitants of a nervous debilitated state of the system.

AS A STIMULANT

It is quite different from all other preparations, not being subject to any of the objections which are urged against them. It is contraindicated to exert its influence gradually and efficiently, long as the least necessity exists for its presence.

AS A FEMALE MEDICINE.

It is equally powerful and effective and restores equilibrium sooner and safer than all the other medicines which for so long have flooded the market, which are only injurious to the health of the female, by renovating the constitution, for a very rapid re-too, that they are only made from the effluents of the medical profession altogether insignificant.

NO MINERALS!

Dr. Wright thinks it well to make his professional character on this point very clear, and to inform the least competent parts of the lazarous of his REJUVENATING ELIXIR—well known what ruin has been entailed on the community by greed and mercury.

Good, and the debilitated, Dr. Wright says, Never despair. No matter how worn down, may be—no matter how weak you are—no matter what the cause may have been—forsake at once whatever has led you to depart from Hygienic
